The "Big Celebration" pulled off on the streets of Butler Saturday night by a bunch of Republican ward night by a bunch of Republican ward politicians and their negro satellites was about the worst fiasco ever staged in Butler. Two or three local political bosses seemed to be the instigators of the "enthusiasm" and the crowd, which in all amounted to about twenty-five celebrants, seemed to be composed mostly of negroes and kids. The celebration consisted mostly of a bonfire of old barrels Wyo., and Miss Sevilla Adline Ran-

THE WAR AT A GLANCE

Allied Victors, Having Subdued the Hun, Turn to Reconstruction.

The guns everywhere are mute Hostilities have given way to preparations by the defeated enemy to evacuate all invaded territory in ac-cordance with the terms of the armistice and by the Entente forces to take up the strategic positions as-signed to them in order that the foe may be unable to resume fighting.

Although the British, Belgian, French and American armies are resting on their arms, they, nevertheless, are on the alert for any eventuality. And thus it is purposed that they shall remain until the peace which will make the world safe for democracy has arrived.

No time has been set as to when the ban will be lifted, hence all public meetings will continue to be down.-Appleton City Journal. be closed

Louisiana Defeats Woman Suffrage by Only 2000.

New York, November 9.—Louis-iana defeated the woman suffrage amendment to its constitution on election day by fewer than 2000 votes, according to a telegram re-ceived by the National Woman Suffrage Association, 171 Madison avenue. As Louisiana is the first Southern State to hold a referendum on suffrage, its defeat by so slight a margin was felt by the association members to be a distinctly encour-aging sign of the gain in suffrage sentiment throughout the South.

The amendment carried at all points in the state outside of New Orleans, but the majority of 9000 Magnanimity lies in the out-stretched hands of the Allies. The votes against it in that city was too large to be overcome. The tel
